

bowral autumn music festival.

The Bowral Autumn Music Festival was inaugurated in 2007 and is an activity of the St Jude's Music Association Inc.

The Festival is administered by a Committee appointed by the Association.

The aim of the Festival is to bring fine chamber music to the Southern Highlands of New South Wales centred on the historic Church of St Simon and St Jude in Bowral.

THE ANNUAL FESTIVAL IS GENERALLY HELD OVER THE LAST WEEKEND IN MARCH (EXCEPT WHEN EASTER FALLS ON THAT WEEKEND, IN WHICH CASE IT WILL BE HELD THE PREVIOUS WEEKEND)

BAMF continues to feature world-class musicians, intimate chamber recitals, Australian composers, local collaborations, music for our young people, the magnificent St.Jude's organ and our Sunday Festival Service at which a Festival Chorus sings those parts of the liturgy traditionally set to music.
