

BAMF continues to feature world-class musicians, intimate chamber recitals, Australian composers, local collaborations, music for our young people, the magnificent St. Jude's organ and our Sunday Festival Service at which a Festival Chorus sings those parts of the liturgy traditionally set to music.

The Bowral Autumn Music Festival was inaugurated in 2007 and is an activity of the St Jude's Music Association Inc.

The Festival is administered by a Committee appointed by the Association.

The aim of the Festival is to bring fine chamber music to the Southern Highlands of New South Wales centred on the historic Church of St Simon and St Jude in Bowral.

Future Festival Dates

2026 March 26 –29

2027 April 1–4

2028 March 30–April 2

2029 April 5–8

2030 March 28–31

The Bowral Autumn Music Festival Society has been established as an organisation to ensure the smooth running and financial success of each Festival.

The aims of the Society are:

- » To offer financial backing to help the Festival function confidently in the 21st century;
- » To support the performance of the classical music repertoire by sponsoring world-class performers for each Festival.

Become a BAMF Society Member and receive:

- » Priority Ticket Sales before the General Public
- » An invitation to an exclusive Annual Members' Event during the Festival (not included in the Annual Donation)
- » Tax-Deduction for donations made out to St.Jude's Music Association Inc.
